

Gloria Brown Award Application Process

Each year at its annual meeting, the Episcopal Network for Economic Justice presents an award to an outstanding faith-based economic justice project. To nominate a project for the award, send a 1-2 page description of the project to the Gloria Brown Award Committee at the address below. Nominations must be received by January 6, 2009.

Last year's award was given to the Living Wage Coalition of San Francisco.

Eligibility Criteria: The organization nominated must be engaged in community economic development or worker justice advocacy and must have a relationship to the Episcopal Church.

Information should include:

- Name and Address of the Organization
- Name and Address of the Contact Person
- Date of incorporation
- Brief history of the organization
- Brief description of current programs
- Proposed use of the $2,000 award.

Hugh White Award

The Hugh White Award is given to an individual who has done outstanding work in the area of worker justice. The 2008 award was given to The Rev. Anna B. Olson of Los Angeles. Please submit the name of an individual along with a brief summary of his or her contributions in the area to the addresses below.

For either the Gloria Brown Award or the Hugh White Award, please submit your nominations to the following addresses:

Send to:

Urla Abrigo
Episcopal Community FCU
P.O. Box 513873
Los Angeles, CA 90051
creditunion@ladiocese.org

Copy to:

Michael Maloney
5829 Wyatt Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45213
meamon@aol.com